COMMEO promotes Christoph Weinert to partner as of 1 January 2023

Frankfurt am Main – COMMEO promotes Christoph Weinert to partner as of 1 January 2023. The Frankfurt-based law firm specializing in German and European antitrust law now consists of six partners and six associates.

Partners Dr. Jörg-Martin Schultze, Dr. Dominique Wagener, Dr. Stephanie Pautke, Dr. Johanna Kübler and Isabel Oest agree: "With Christoph's promotion, we are continuing the harmonious growth of our firm from within our own ranks. Christoph strengthens our partner team not only professionally, but also with his Rhineland way of life. He was the first unsolicited application after founding COMMEO in 2010, and we are delighted to continue on the joint path taken at the time from now on in the partnership."

Christoph Weinert is a recognized expert in German and European antitrust law and is recommended by Legal 500 EMEA and Kanzleimonitor, among others. His main areas of advice include antitrust litigation, in particular representation in damages proceedings before German courts, as well as defense in regulatory and judicial antitrust proceedings. He further focuses on advising in the area of German and European merger control, including all transactional antitrust law. Christoph Weinert also advises on distribution antitrust issues and abuse control as well as on all aspects of antitrust compliance.

Christoph Weinert studied law at the University of Bonn and received his Master of Laws (LL.M.) from Victoria University of Wellington (New Zealand). After starting his career as associate at the international law firm Weil, Gotshal & Manges in Frankfurt, he joined the COMMEO team in 2012.

COMMEO is a specialized law firm focusing exclusively on competition law. An established team of experienced lawyers advises national and international clients on all aspects of German and EU competition law.
